Koogler Homes Chosen Contractor of the Year by the CCCIA

The Cape Coral Construction Industry Association (CCCIA) announced Koogler Homes, Inc. as the Contractor of the Year at its 2017 Ace Awards ceremony held on December 8, at the Moose Lodge #2199, located at 155 Santa Barbara Boulevard in Cape Coral.

The annual event recognizes top members within the Cape Coral building industry for their commitment to local economic growth, as well as their community involvement. Other awards presented include Subcontractor of the Year and Affiliate of the Year.

A CCCIA member since 2001, Koogler Homes has established a reputation for outstanding design and uncompromising quality, all while participating in every facet of construction, ensuring customers a one-of-a-kind residence.

"We are honored and humbled to receive this award," said Don Koogler, President. "We look forward to continuing our growth and commitment to this great community for many years to come."

About Koogler Homes

Koogler Homes' founder and owner, Don Koogler, is a master craftsman who has been creating luxury residences in Florida since 1996. He moved from Iowa, where it all began at the age of 12. In his spare time, he helped his dad and grandfather in the remodeling business, initially cleaning up worksites and later graduating to renovations. At 19 years old, he decided to focus on new-home construction. Stepping out from underneath his dad's wing, he launched Koogler Construction. When he moved to Southwest Florida he had 25 years of new-home construction under his belt. He then launched a homebuilding company and refined his focus to creating custom homes exclusively.

Koogler Homes is located at 434 S.E. 47 Terrace Suite B, Cape Coral, FL 33904. Call (239) 542-4540 for more information. Online at KooglerHomes.com.
